THE DEVIL'S GOOD RACE.

Tuesday's track at Harlem was a trifle slow, the result of rain Monday night. Seven races were run and the finishes were spirited. Enchanter caused a long delay at the post in the third race. A claim of foul in the second race was an incident of moment. When in front of the grand stand Fair Deceiver, the favorite, ridden by Burns, swung over in front of Hazeldean, coming fast on the inside. The Hazeldean party asserted that the foul was deliberate, but the judges would not so see it. Fair Deceiver was disqualified, but Burns was not punished.

Nine 2-year-olds started in the first race. Scatcohen, a remarkably quick breaker, was first on her stride, took the track and held it to the end. Prince Harry closed steadily in the stretch and nearly caught her. Effort ran out on the turn, yet outran the field and was in a good position bending for home. G. W. Poole, who trains Scatcohen, bet on Prince Harry.

The second race looked a sure thing for Fair Deceiver when the final quarter was reached. But while Chiquita and Mary Kinsella clung to her Hazeldean came flying from the ruck. Fair Deceiver could not withstand them, and the foul noted marred the finish.

Hugh Penny, a hot odds-on favorite, barely beat Zamar II. in the third race. The pair trailed into the stretch, then ran through the field and fought out the finish. The official was 1:17. Outside timers made it faster.

A certainty was beaten in the fourth race. Macy was the sure thing. The Devil was 1 to 4 for place. It was a two-horse race and a riding match between Burns and Clawson, in which the latter carried off the laurels. Both took things easily to the middle of the back stretch. There Burns made his first move. Clawson promptly sent his mount to the front. At the half they looked and pulled away from the others. The Devil beat Macy two lengths in the run around the turn. Clawson kept his mount going to the end. Under severe flogging Macy gained ground in the run home.

Burns turned the tables upon Master Clawson in the Youngster Stakes. The field got away well. At the end of a furlong Clawson took Toluca back and into the dry ground on the outside. Burns, seeing that he could not outrun the others around the turn, also pulled back and trailed Toluca into the stretch. There was a spectacular drive in the last three-sixteenths that set the crowd ablaze. The colt headed the filly home and Burns' skill was appropriately acknowledged.

Morte Fosse showed himself a great stretch runner in the sixth race. Cherry Leaf was heavily backed. Morte Fosse went through his field like a wild horse, and the favorite had hard work to beat the friendless Del Paso II.

Last Friday, with 111 pounds up, Moroni ran third to The Tarcoon and King Bermuda. The Tarcoon was disqualified for a foul. As published in this column, Caywood, who rode Moroni, said he would have beaten both of those in front of him if he could have kept his mount from swerving. With 89 pounds up yesterday, Moroni was a 15 to 1 chance in the seventh race. Away in the middle of the sixteen starters, he got through and won easily.

Espionage has been brought back from Detroit. She is lame, as reported, but Louis Ezell does not know whether the trouble is serious or not. He expected her to go lame whenever she raced and was agreeably disappointed until her last race at Highland Park. Said he: "She cost me only $25 and if she had been sound I would not be her owner. She had a couple of knots on her legs when I got her and she has them still. When they hurt her she goes lame."

Tom Ryan makes most of H. Martin's engagements for outside mounts. Martin objects to riding, except for the stable in big fields, so Tom does not make any engagements for the boy to ride where there will be more than ten starters. Yesterday J. B. Gray, through Ryan, engaged Martin to ride Gold Corn in the seventh race. There were sixteen starters, and the boy objected to filling the engagement. Col. Clark sent for him to explain. When asked if Ryan was authorized to make engagements for him Martin answered that he was. "Then you will have to ride. Go and get on the mare," was the Colonel's direction. It was obeyed.

J. M. Murphy's promising 2-year-old colt Streamer has been coughing for a couple of days. On this account he was scratched from the Youngsters Stakes.

Permission was given Burns to saddle Sidonian at the stable and bring him to the paddock. The horse was not brought to the paddock. Burns was fined $5 for his failure.

Tom McGee yesterday told how Clayton came to ride Tillo in the Suburban. Bob Rose first wrote to Pat Dunne asking for Willie Martin's services. Pat answered that Martin would have to ride Pink Coat in the St. Louis Derby on Suburban day. Then J. W. Rogers, Rose's partner, telegraphed Ed Corrigan asking for Clayton. Corrigan consented, and the engagement was made.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The present successful meeting at Highland Park comes to a close next Thursday, and from there the Northern Circuit turfmen and their horses will journey to the fast Fort Erie track. Racing begins there next Saturday with the Canadian Derby as the principal feature. The race is at a mile and a half and of the guaranteed value of $2,500. The probable starters seem to be Nabob, Alice Farley, Harvey, Laverock, Aragnol, Greenhorn, Opaque and Eleanor Holmes. Unless Isabey is sent on here to run in the American Derby he, too, will start there and legitimately be the post favorite. The meeting will run to July 12, after which the scene of operations shifts to Montreal.

The big racing firm of Fleischmann Bros. recently offered to purchase from Baker & Gentry their good 2-year-old Hardy Pardee, by Pardee—Sophia Hardy. The offer was made through Mr. A. S. Labold, but was declined by Baker & Gentry. Robert Baker stated that his only reason for refusing to sell Hardy Pardee to the Messrs. Fleischmann was because he had advertised to sell the colt at public auction at Washington Park this month with the balance of his stable. —Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Starter James B. Ferguson has lost his noted broodmare Encore, she dying a few days ago. Encore was the dam of Ed Corrigan's flying mare Helter Skelter, Phil Dwyer and other good performers. She was foaled in England in 1879 and was by Cymbal—Gratitude.

The good racehorse Fleischmann has broken down hopelessly and will be retired to the stud. He is a full brother to Simon W and Lehman and last year defeated Ornament for the Buckeye Stakes at Oakley.

J. E. Whistler, New Orleans, La.—The Withers mile is an exact mile in length. It is a part of the main track which is a mile and three furlongs long.

Dupee, Conley and Everett lead the Latonia jockeys, Dupee leading by a narrow majority.

Eighteen regular and four field books were in the ring at St. Louis last Saturday.

Time, 13, 24½, 50, 1:16.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Marden—Lucille.

Start fair. Won easily. Loiterer is a fast horse. Abingdon finished strong and is much improved. Watch him at a route. Traveler closed fast at the end. Reed ran a bad race. He is said to have been anchored by the weight. He was apparently galloping the first half and looked to be a sure winner when the home run began. He is unsound, but can do better. Tinkler was outclassed.

Scratched—Kenmore Queen, 120.

Time, 25, 49½, 1:16, 1:43½.

Winner—Ch., f, by Enthusiast—Maid of Athens.

Start good. Won easily. The right horse won and is a very fair filly. She finished gamely and with strength. Bonadea is evidently a non-stayer. She quit when called upon. Tabouret was under a big pull the first three-quarters. She got a bad ride and is not too consistent. Ruby Lips was not ready. She showed a lot of speed. Tab her for soft going.

Overweights—Bonadea, 1 pound.

Time, 11½, 24½, 48½, 1:01½.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Sir Dixon—Roseville.

Start fair. Won easily. Ahom ran green. The race will educate and improve him. He was best. This colt is very game and a stayer. He requires racing to improve him. Miller was well handled; liked the course and a distance. He appeared to be winning at the eighth pole; ran gamely enough. Muggins came through in the last eighth very fast. He is only a sprinter, but may improve. Havelock stopped at the end as usual. He can do better. Autumn's race was too bad to be true. Throw it out. He was eased up through the stretch. May dislike weight. A. N. B. ran well and was eased at the end. Half Time was outclassed.

Scratched—Greyfield, 122.

Time, 12½, 24½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Sir Dixon—Katydid.

Start fair. Won driving. Maceo was a good horse today and probably the best. He should improve. Isidor ran a remarkable race and is steadily improving. This colt is a grand looker. He finished like a lion. Typhoon stopped at the end, but raced well. Keene was sharply interfered with on the stretch turn and finished strong. He was very unlucky in the race. Dr. Black showed a lot of speed and was eased up the last furlong. He was short. Watch this fellow. Buella was badly ridden, got the worst of start, and took the long route. Watch her too. Van Antwerp appeared to be of no account today. He likes the grass course and mellow going. Caldron was short. He'll do better over a longer route. Poetess favors a route too. She had no chance with the start or the ride she got. Watch her. She looks good.

Scratched—Handball, 106.

Overweights—Isidor, 4 pounds; Buella, 1; Caldron, 3.

Winner—B. f. by Ludwig—Tarantella.

Start bad. Won driving. Royal Maiden beat the barrier, was very lucky and the best handled. She is hardly more than ordinary. Lepida was the best, but was outfinished in the last furlong. Mischief Maker had no chance with her ride. Watch her. She ran a good race. Diminutive was badly messed on the elbow and closed strong. La Cheviot saved ground there. Chemisette is a good filly, but never had a chance with the ride she got. Watch her. Tendency was none too well handled and took the long route. Spencer rides badly over the Futurity course. Gray is of no account apparently. The others had no chance last half.
Overweights—Chemisette, 1 pound; St. Sophia, 3.

6600 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. On Turf.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Deceiver—Cicely Bowling.

Start straggling. Won handily. Burlesque may have been the best. He was well ridden and finished strong. Handball had a lot of speed and seemed to be winning. Stopped near the finish. He ran his race. Nosey raced to the mark. He is game and a stayer, but had no flash of speed. Rappahannock ran a good race and closed a big gap. He had no chance with his jockey or start and took the long route. Juno quit badly and was eased up. She appeared to be merely galloping the first three-quarters. Watch her.
Scratched—Damien, 127; Rotterdam, 116.
Overweights—Rappahannock, 3 pounds; Long Acre, 1.

Winner—Br. f. by Fonso—Duchess Caroline.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second mildly driven. Third and fourth ridden out. Scatcohen was lucky. She got away flying and always had clear sailing. Caywood picked the best going and rode a nice race on the fly. She was out to the last ounce and would have been beaten in a few more strides. Prince Harry can beat this kind the next time out. He is a good looker and can be closely tabbed. Judge Wilcox ran to the notch. Pirate Judge was sharply shut off and obliged to pull up on the far turn. He finished very strong. The Dragon and Effort both showed a sharp turn of speed around the turn. The latter was on the outside and ran a better race than the figures show.
Scratched—Lucille Bramble, 110; Rosa L, 110; Facade, 110; Foxnette, 110.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Lady Elizabeth.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive; all the six leaders were doing their best. Mary Kinsella ran a game race. She was under sharp punishment all through the stretch. Fair Deceiver had no excuses. She got away well. She is faint hearted and was staggering at the end. She bore in under punishment and sharply interfered with Hazeldean in the stretch. Hazeldean might have won but for the interference. La Champagne and GNOME both had plenty of speed. Both tired badly at the end.
Overweights—Ironical, 3 pounds; Whirmantiline, 5; Chiquita II., 3.

Winner—B. g. s. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward.
Post 22 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving; third cleverly. Hugh Penny was the best and best ridden too. Caywood, to avoid being carried out on the turn, pulled Penny back and came through on the rail at the head of the stretch. Zamar II. made a wide stretch turn. By doing so he got into the best going and finished very strong. He is ready and can be tabbed. King Bermuda ran a good race. Martin's saddle slipped and he was unable to help the colt through the stretch. Primate showed a lot of speed. He stopped after going about a half. Enchanter refused to break and caused the delay. He did not run nearly his race. Tenole looked dangerous at the head of the stretch, but was outclassed. Tom Toher ran a good race.
Scratched—Diggs, 109.
Overweights—King Bermuda, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c. s. by Major Richards—Patagonia.
Off at first break to a fair start. The winner was only hand ridden. Macy was hard driven. Rice had something left. The Devil ran a sparkling race. He was perfectly ridden. Clawson sat still until Macy got to him and then applied his tools in the proper way. He swung wide into the stretch and by so doing got his horse into the best going. Burns was overconfident on Macy. He was driving him soon after passing the half mile pole. Macy is full of courage and closed a lot of ground under keen punishment in the stretch. Eva Rice ran a good race. She is rounding to. Plantain and San Juan were outclassed.
Scratched—Midian, 95.
Overweights—San Juan, 34 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Belvidere—Peninah.
Off at first break to a perfect start. Won cleverly after a long early drive. Toluca was also eased at the end. W. Overton was the best. He and Toluca both came wide into the stretch and were under keen punishment almost to the finish. Toluca was not quite ready. Cheval d'Or is an honest colt. He did well, but swerved when the pinch came. He was outclassed. Watch Alyar. He is a good looking colt and showed a lot of speed.
Scratched—Mr. Johnson, 113; Alpina, 107; Cathedral, 121; Lucille Bramble, 110; Streamer, 118

Winner—Ch. h. 6, by Fonso—Flyer.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end. There was a lot of action behind the winner. Morte Fonso came with one of his sensational rushes in the stretch. Caywood rode the horse the way he needs to be ridden. Cherry Leaf looked like a winner in the straight, but weakened in the last thirty yards. Del Paso II ran an excellent race. He was a trifle short. The race will do him a lot of good. Tanto ran a far better race than he did last Monday. He and Pinkey Potter were used too much early. Banquo II seems to be of little or no account right now. Dorothy III is a coward.
Scratched—Joe Clark, 114; Ace, 107.
Overweights—Morte Fonso, 2 pounds.

Time, 12, 25, 36, 50, 1:17.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Sayre—Stephanie.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth driving. Moroni was lucky throughout and always had a clear course. He likes weight off and ran a nice race. Shepherd rode him well, too. The Tory had bad racing luck and ran an honest race. He is good now and can beat the same kind his next out. Sidonian did his best. He is a bad horse these days. Had Bloss used better judgment on Weird, he would have been a keen contender. He was clear of his field in the stretch, but, instead of going to the outside where the track was good, Bloss hugged the rail and anchored his mount. Tab Weird; he is a good maiden. Dousterswivel went to pieces at the end. Carrie F was off poorly and did not run her race.
Scratched—First Call, 105; Pinchback, 109; Theresa H, 99; Croesus, 105.

Overweights—Jersey Lad, 2 pounds; Dousterswivel, 3; Why, 4; Hazelhatch, 2; Lizzie Miles, 3.

Time, 13, 254, 504, 1:03.

Winner—B. c, by Siddartha—Rose Higby.
Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Sir Gatian ran a wretched race. He never seemed able to get into a position from a bad start. Boy claimed he was trying to run out. He was under the whip all the way. Lucinda B II was sharply cut off at the start. Ran a good race. Be True is a good colt.

Scratched—Boheria, 108; Henry Wolfer, 104; Fallohetto, 101.

Winner—B. f, by Balgown—Parolee.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. The first four were hard driven. Genna was the best, but had Bessie Ewing got away with her it might have been a tight fit. Bessie Ewing is a fair filly. The early speed settled Condock. Katie Gibbons does not seem to be of much present account. Flying Bird had speed, but weakened at the end.

Winner—B. c, by Top Gallant—Little Kate.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second ridden out. Sir Rolla was the best. McDonald waited until Naoma and Libation had raced themselves into the ground and then came on. He easily stalled off the final effort of the pair. Domsie, off none too well, was always outrun.

Scratched—Ed Farrell, 115; Empress Josephine, 93.

Winner—Blk. c, 3, by Stonehenge—Chemise.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The leaders were both driving hard. Gibraltar was under a choking pull for a half mile. He was out to the limit at the finish, however. Silver Set and David ran to their nitches. Nick Carter dulled his speed running in long races.
